

Evidence & Exhibit Log

Case No. 214/2024 | Compiled by: Investigating Officer, T. Nagar Police Station

Exhibit A — Memorandum of Understanding (3 January 2024)

Clause 4 of the MoU states: 'Party B (Suresh Babu Menon) shall deposit Rs. 12,50,000 into the joint operating account within 15 days of execution of this agreement.' Clause 7 states the account shall operate on an 'Either or Survivor' basis for transactions up to Rs. 2,00,000 only, and shall require joint signature for any withdrawal exceeding Rs. 2,00,000 — this appears to conflict with the bank's own mandate record described in Exhibit C.

Exhibit B — Bank Statement (1 Jan 2024 to 10 Mar 2024)

Opening balance: Rs. 0. Credit of Rs. 50,000 on 3 Jan 2024. Credit of Rs. 15,000 on 10 Feb 2024. Debit of Rs. 3,40,000 on 22 Jan 2024, cheque no. 002841, single signatory: S. B. Menon. Closing balance as of 10 Mar 2024: Rs. -2,75,000 (overdraft).

Exhibit C — Bank Account Mandate Form

Operating instructions field marked: 'Either or Survivor — No Limit'. Signed by both parties on 3 January 2024. This directly contradicts Clause 7 of the MoU (Exhibit A), which purports to cap single-signatory withdrawals at Rs. 2,00,000.

Exhibit D — WhatsApp Transcript (20 Jan - 1 Mar 2024)

20 Jan 2024, 11:02 - Rajesh Iyer: 'Suresh, the deposit was due two days ago, please confirm status.'
20 Jan 2024, 18:45 - Suresh Menon: 'Processing it this week, minor delay on my end.'
5 Feb 2024, 09:15 - Rajesh Iyer: 'Still no deposit and I see a large withdrawal instead. Explain.'
5 Feb 2024, 20:03 - Suresh Menon: 'I needed it for an emergency, will return by month end.'
1 Mar 2024, 16:30 - Rajesh Iyer: 'You have not returned anything. I am going to the police.'
1 Mar 2024, 16:52 - Suresh Menon: 'Do what you want, the account was mine to operate.'

Note on Discrepancies

Investigating officer flags two items for legal review: (i) the conflicting withdrawal-limit clauses between the MoU and the bank mandate form; and (ii) a discrepancy in witness recollection regarding the date the complainant first raised concerns internally (25 January per Anand Prakash's statement) versus the complainant's own FIR narrative, which does not mention this internal date at all and instead centres on the 1 March 2024 confrontation.
